GT2 RS: FOUR SALES, FOUR DIFFERENT TIERS.

September's GT2 RS tape ranged from $630K to $850K. Mileage, PTS color and Weissach equipment did more work than the model badge alone.

PORSCHE GT MARKET REPORT

Current GT2 RS and 992 GT3 RS sales reinforce a familiar Porsche rule: package, mileage and color can be as important as the model itself.

Model	Result	Context	Read
2018 GT2 RS	$850K SOLD	237 mi · PTS Signal Yellow · Sep 16	Ultra-low-mile PTS example set the September high.
2018 GT2 RS Weissach	$805K SOLD	993 mi · Guards Red · Sep 2	Sub-1k-mile Weissach example remained firmly premium.
2018 GT2 RS Weissach	$673,001 SOLD	4,700 mi · Chalk · Sep 11	Useful mid-mileage reference.
2019 GT2 RS Weissach	$630K SOLD	9k mi · Miami Blue · Sep 24	Higher-mile end of the September curve.
2025 GT3 RS Weissach + Manthey	$502K SOLD	3,600 mi · Sep 26	Manthey package supported a strong result despite more miles.
2025 GT3 RS Weissach	$486K SOLD	477 mi · Sep 28	Near-new benchmark without Manthey.

GT2 RS $220K spread inside one month. That dispersion is exactly why we do not use one model average for acquisition decisions. PTS, Weissach, mileage and originality determine the real comp set.	992 GT3 RS Equipment can offset mileage. The Manthey-equipped 3,600-mile car sold above the 477-mile Weissach car, illustrating how the right factory / dealer-supported package can change the equation.

CARRERA GT / 918 No need to force a September reset. Public supply was thinner than August. We retain prior halo benchmarks until stronger new transactions justify moving them.
